

Bryant University | new england
June 27-28 | SUMMER 2016
YEARBOOK
WORKSHOP

ESSENTIAL INFO

Plan to arrive at the Bryant University campus for registration and room assignments between 8:00 AM and 9:30 AM on Monday, June 27th. Classes start promptly at 10:00 that morning. The workshop will end Tuesday, June 28th by 4:30 PM.

Adviser attendance is strongly encouraged, but not required. Student effort and interest is far greater when advisers attend with students. We especially recommend the attendance of an adviser/chaperone to help guide a larger group.

Be sure to bring extra copies of your 2015 & 2016 yearbooks. We will have our annual book swap to help you add to your sample library. Bring a book, take a book home!

HOUSING

Students are housed in double occupancy rooms. Men and women are housed on separate floors. Advisers have single rooms. Advisers and staff will be in the same building interspersed on the halls with students to provide appropriate chaperoning.

University campus security will be on duty in the dormitories during the night hours for protection and to enforce non-visitation rules. Any violation of the rules and regulations of the Summer Yearbook Workshop or Bryant University will result in an immediate dismissal from the workshop. All dorms are air-conditioned and linens are provided. Bring a blanket, your favorite pillow, last year's yearbook.

- Plans for '17 yearbook
- Calendar of school and local events
- Financial information for 2017 book

OUR GUEST INSTRUCTORS

Rick Brooks

Rick Brooks, Northeast Creative Design Manager with Jostens has worked in the field of design and publishing since 1986. He works with and designs for high schools and colleges throughout the Northeast. His clientele roster includes Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Columbia, West Point, Penn State, Boston College, and numerous colleges and large high schools throughout the nation. Brooks' main focus is designing, lecturing and doing presentations for his clients. A member of JEA and a certified journalism educator (CJE), Columbia, CMA, and the Society of Collegiate Journalists, he actively lectures and teaches at National and State Conventions.

Bonnie Blackman

Bonnie Blackman is a recipient of the Columbia Scholastic Press Gold Key and is a Certified Journalism Educator (CJE). She is a board member of the Garden State Scholastic Press Association and received their Golden Quill Award for contributions to journalism in New Jersey. Blackman also sits on the Advisory Board of the Pennsylvania School Press Association, and was recently presented with their Keystone Award for meritorious service to student journalism. Blackman is a yearly presenter at JEA/NSPA and CSPA conventions, as well as the Jostens National College Seminar. Her unique style will motivate and entertain you.

Make the most of your summer workshop and plan to bring your entire staff for an awesome team-building experience! We are excited about this year's workshop and can't wait to see you there! For more information, please contact your rep.
